This report is a result of ongoing undercover and cooperative law enforcement operations conducted by Special Agents and Investigators of the Illinois Liquor Control Commission (ILCC), local law enforcement officials and underage participants recruited from area high schools and colleges. The teams randomly visit liquor stores, restaurants and bars in communities around the state to check for ongoing compliance with state laws mandating that no liquor is sold to persons under 21 years old. ILCC Special Agents and Investigators work with local and state law enforcement agencies to focus on communities with high incidence of underage liquor sales.
